v.

CHRISTOPHER ROBERT WEAST

United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit

Appeal No. 14-11253
Case No. 4:14-CR-00023-A

Notice and Admissions

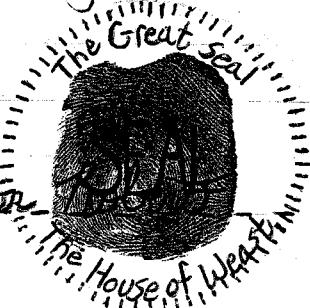

Comes now, Christopher Robert Weast to Admit onto Evidence, as Per the Rules of Evidence, Notice of an interest in the private.

I, Christopher Robert Weast, hereby declare under the penalty of perjury that an interest in the private owns this entire case, and has extinguished the debts of the defendant in this matter, and the only way that can't happen is if another person, man or woman, has a superior prior or equal right to this case, and they must, in the next 40 days, state so on the face of the record, under penalty of perjury, otherwise the interest in the private holds unfettered, perfected title of the case, and per this notice, you are now trespassing on the trust res which is private property.
